U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT DIST OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN RE:	OPERATING ORDER
TECHNICAL AMENDMENT TO) LOCAL RULES)	99-3
)
)

Pursuant to South Carolina Local Bankruptcy Rule (SC LBR) 9029-1, Operating Orders and Amendments to the Local Bankruptcy Rules, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- 1. SC LBR 1007-2, Filing of Lists, Schedules and Statements, paragraph (c), Motion to Extend Time and Objections, is hereby amended to add the word "must" in the third sentence so that it reads: "If a greater extension is sought, the motion to extend time must also be served upon all creditors unless the court orders otherwise."
- 2. SC LBR 7016-1, Adversary Proceedings, paragraph (f), Dismissal of Proceedings for Lack of Prosecution, is hereby amended to delete the word "within" so that it reads: "Except where a complaint objecting to a discharge or dischargeability has been filed, an adversary proceeding may be dismissed by the court thirty (30) days after the filing of the complaint for lack of prosecution where no service of process has been made and certified to the court and the original or reissued summons has expired."

FOR THE COURT:

J. BRATTON DAVIS, CHIEF JUDGE

Columbia, South Carolina October 1, 1999
